HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY AND STAFF

James Coffman
Principal

A memory is something you can treasure all through your life. Even though many of you will be leaving home while others stay, you will always remain through those dearest of memories of all the many times you have shared together, the Class of '92.

As you embark on the new challenges of life, remember, a wise man will always ask directions not only to keep from being lost, but also to insure a safe and pleasurable journey.

You create most of the circumstances in which you live. If you want to be successful and happy, surround yourself with happy and successful people.

FACULTY FRAMES — GOTCHA!!!

Ready for another day of stomping out ignorance.

On the cutting edge of fashion.

Yes, Mrs. Dangerfield he has done it again.

180 days down — just 3 more to go.

Slow down Mrs. King, that pie isn't going anywhere.

Friends, Romans, Countrymen lend me your fashion tips.

Hans and Frans
We're here to pump — YOU UP!

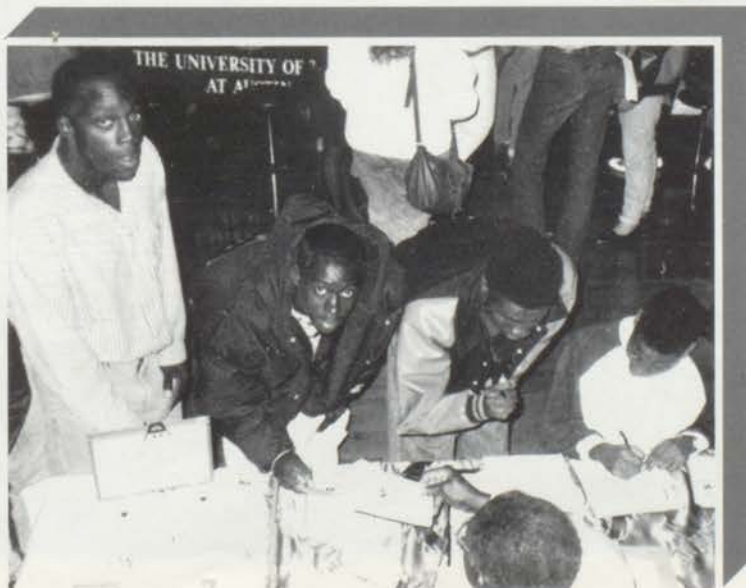

That's right Mr. Moose. I said it. And if you don't like it, there's the door.

I'm trying to get some work done here if you don't mind.

Homecoming '91

As seen below, a spirited student body gathered around the bonfire on Wednesday night of homecoming week. The homecoming court selected was as follows: Freshman princess — Misty Tefteller; Sophomore princess — Cristy Cox; Junior princess — Neisha Sadler; Senior princess — Joy Phillips; and Football Sweetheart — Leanne Pounds. This year's homecoming ceremonies were celebrated on October 4, 1991, honoring the class of 1972. The Lions rolled over the Redwater Dragons 21-0, giving us our first win of the season.

SPIRIT WEEK

Every year, when New Boston plays Hooks, each class participates in decorating their respective hallways to show class spirit. The halls are later judged by a selected group of faculty. The Junior class was the winner of this year's Spirit Week competition.

Bust a move, Chuck D.!

I'm takin' 'er easy!

What did you step in, Brandi?

Felicia, loosen up!

Hopeful Garden Club Members.

Yeah, I pushed him!

Jonanna, how ladylike!

Look at me!

Ottis, a little Ex-Lax will clear that right up.

Work it, Robin!!

"Walk Like Jesus"

Walk like Jesus,
Hold your head high.
Never let your love
For Him run dry.

Walk like an example
For your friends to see
Christian soldiers are
What we should be.

Walk like a disciple,
Be strong and true.
When you follow Him,
Jesus is proud of you.

Walk like you're proud
Of who you are,
Because if you're a Christian,
You stand out by far . . .
