Michele, it's just a camera.

Could it smell
any worse?

Jason is learning by osmosis.

Who left JOHN in charge?

Kelli with the attitude!

Are you sure about that James?

Pick it,
Roll it,
Flick it on a friend!

Gosh, he's tall!

Well, let me think about it.

Do the BEANER!

Sir, may I have your autograph?

I feel your pain!

Homecoming '94

Homecoming Sweetheart Melannie Jones

Homecoming 1994 was unique in many ways. It was held on September 16, our first home game of the season. The New Boston Lions faced Mount Vernon and came away with an upsetting defeat. A bonfire was held at the High School earlier in the week. The National Honor Society sponsored a mini-parade during activity period, and various clubs participated with their mini-floats.

The homecoming royalty was presented at the pep rally with the homecoming sweetheart, Mel Jones, being announced at the pre-game ceremonies.

No peeking, Jerome.

Our moms still dress us!

Yell S-U-R-E!

UGH!

Yea, we're wasting class time.

ERROR ... ERROR ...

Bet you won't say that again!

Midnight Masquerade

Prom '95

Is anyone ever going to dance?

Mmmm, doesn't this food look good!

Forget you Robert, I want John!

I can't believe she actually wore those shoes.

Don't hate me because I'm beautiful.

Kiss me baby!

What is everybody waiting on?

What kind of new dance is that?

Big money---big money!

Yes, I am a freak!

Prom night is just too much stress!

Why is everybody laughing at me?

BRAC ATTACK!

On April 6 and May 15 NBHS students traveled to Red River Army Depot to show our support for the Depot and to greet BRAC committee members.

Ricky, why so serious?

I think we can see better on the other side.

Don't pop that balloon, Mrs. King!

Hey John-Fletcher, will you share your balloons?

Yes, Mark, we see your sign.

How do you do, I'm Angela Conley.

NBHS students show their support.

Mr. Sturgeon keeps the crowd under control.

Mrs. Lyles is keeping order, as usual.

Mrs. Coffman, are you blowing up the balloons?

How much longer do we have to wait?

Okay, it's over — let's go back to school.

Is this the weight watchers meeting?

The Sheik of Old Main!

The Masked Mad Bookman has a wreck!

My ACT score?

NB's own Jimi Hendrix, aka T. J. Shafer.

Schlaundria, report to Mr. Babcock's office, AGAIN!

Teachers and staff members of New Boston High School took part in a two-day training session of HEARTS (Honesty, Ethics, Attitude, Respect, Trust and Support) at Red River Army Depot on October 3 and 4. The general consensus of the faculty was that it was the best in-service the high school has had in a long time. Plans are being made for the faculty to take part in Hearts II training in the future.

Yearbook staff's contribution to homecoming mini-parade.

In this year's edition of the Lion's Den you will find many of the same traditions but also some new changes. One major change that may go unnoticed, but is a significant change to the staff and me, is a new publisher. This year's annual is published by Jostens. We hope you like what you see and enjoy your Visions of Gold.

Faculty And Staff

Mr. Dempsey/Principal

The addition of an art class and an updated reading program with real incentives like field trips and jam boxes have helped make this a great year for NBJHS students. Knowing that the New Boston students are some of the best anywhere, we at New Boston Junior High will constantly strive to provide our students with a top-notch education. Since the '95-96 school year will be the last in our old buildings, the students and staff are eagerly looking forward to the construction of the new middle school.

Chapter I

Being the principal is so much FUN!

Ohhh, Mrs. Sparks is so demanding!

Coffee Break!

Dorothy Ware retires after 31 years of teaching, 21 of which was in New Boston. We will still see Mrs. Ware, however. She plans to teach on a 1/2-day basis next year.

Nan Mosley receives her wall clock for 25 years of service at the Employee Appreciation Banquet.

You already know how much we love you. We will truly miss you. You are really a joy to have around. I can remember when you were only a 1-1/2 feet tall toddler; now you are a 6' 6-1/2" young man. Always remember to pray. And never take anything for granted. May God bless you and keep you. I wish you success in any endeavor which you pursue.

From toddler to teen you have made us proud. Your vitality and achievements kept our heads in the clouds. From rompers to softball games to a beauty with long hair. You never failed to show us how much you care. You've held your head high and kept your heart on the ground. Thru challenges and triumphs and as you wore elegant gowns. We now salute you with smiles (and a wee bit of tears). And say Thank you for a

Kiersten,
 Congratulations on your graduation. We are so proud of you. Good luck and remember we always love you.

Love you,
 Mom, Dad, Shane, and Jon

There is no higher calling in life than the task of bearing and raising a child whom God has trusted to your care.

We are given a few brief years to love and guide them, and then to instill the values in which we believe.

Then suddenly, the child you have raised will be grown and have a family of his own.

What endures for Mothers and Fathers after that moment of release is a precious museum of memories to be remembered for the rest of their lives.

Wherever you are,
 Renato,
 We love you.

Your American Family,
 Jerry, Kim, Chris,
 Nick Russell

Mac,
 Congratulations! You have made us very proud parents. Be the best at whatever you choose to be. We will always love you and wish you the best life possible.

Love,
 Mom & Dad

Time passes and we may part,
 but cousin, we'll always be close at heart.

Shane,

Congratulations! Always keep God first. We love you.
