Heroes

by Brandy Strickland

So many different faces,
 so many different colors,
 yet here in this place we are all sisters and brothers.
 We are one when we come together,
 and the spirit at NBHS will last forever.
 We pull together and prove we're tough,
 when the road gets too long or becomes a bit too rough.
 You are all heroes to so many around.
 You must strive for the best and not let them down.
 You show how courageous and strong you are because in someone's eyes you are that shining star.
 So look deep down within your soul.
 Remember we're the Lions — the mighty — the bold.
 Listen to what I'm saying because it is all true,
 there's a hero that lies in each of you.

Another day of comforting after Laura's 25th accident!

Don't everyone smile all at once!

PROM 1996

Somebody's got Saturday Night Fever!

Money, I need more money!

They're bringing around our horses.

Who's the teacher? Hunter or Mrs. Lyles?

Do the Funky Chicken!

Come on! Big Money!

UNFORGETTABLE!

Smile! You're on candid camera.

Where's my date?

Liz, that's not allowed at school functions.

Jason, you can't hit her here. There are witnesses.

Baby steps to the wall, baby steps around the ring.

Prom Kings & Queen: Coye, Toni & T.W.

Reggie, you'll never be as good as Justin.

What's wrong? Is everyone tired or what?

Okay, when does the bus leave for AstroWorld?

The New Boston High School Band traveled to Houston during the first weekend of May. The band received outstanding recognition for its performance at the Wortham Center. While in the Houston area, the band visited AstroWorld, Hard Rock Cafe, and experienced a day at the Galveston beach. Unfortunately, the beach trip was cut short due to "alternative lifestyle day". A great time was had by all and everyone arrived home safely, yet tired.

HOMECOMING '95

Senior Toni Williams, escorted by her brother, David Sirmons, is crowned Homecoming Sweetheart by Student Council representatives Aaron Johnston and Leslie Henslee

This year's homecoming night was full of excitement and surprises! The night started out with Senior Toni Williams being crowned as 1995 Homecoming Sweetheart. Then, the battle between the oldest rivalries in Northeast Texas, the New Boston Lions and the DeKalb Bears, began. The game was very close all the way until the last second. With five seconds left, the Lions' Thomas LaToof kicked a field goal from the 23-yard line leading New Boston to a 15-13 defeat over the Bears. Although DeKalb went on to win the district title, they still didn't get the satisfaction of beating the New Boston Lions!

Homecoming Sweetheart and Court.

Lions get ready to kick Bears' butts!

Five seconds left . . . and the kick is.....G-O-O-D!

CRESTVIEW JUMP ROPE TEAM

Front Row l to r: Colby Brown, Cedrick Dorsey & Oliver Smith. Second Row: Brianne Wardell, Josh Turner, Andrea Dorsey, Lindsey Stewart & Corey Sanders. Third Row: Ashley Coffmen, Rachel Cox, Sherelle McRae, Kara Miller, Nicole Flanery, David White, Laura Ward, Ashley Rolf & Lindsey Wiggins. Fourth Row: Michele Shute, Crystal Abercrombie, Laura Webster, Alicia Waldon, Jenna Wharton, Amber Hines & Coach Ginger Moore. Not Pictured: Casey Coleman, Andre Dorsey & Chris Stout.

Crestview's Jump Rope team had quite a season in its first year of existence. Comprised of 26 members from 2nd, 3rd, 4th & 5th grades, the team performed at an array of functions including half-time entertainment at high school basketball games, as well as exhibitions at several area schools and performances at all three campuses of the NBISD. Team members did group maneuvers, as well as individual skills, and helped choreograph some of their own routines.

Hula-hooping takes total concentration!

Hi! These are my crazy friends!

Hut-2-3-4!

Do these come in red?

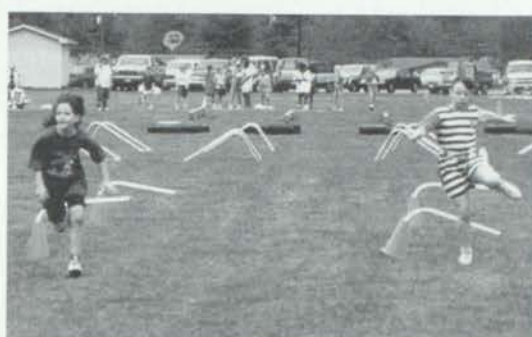

Help! I've climbed up and I can't get down!

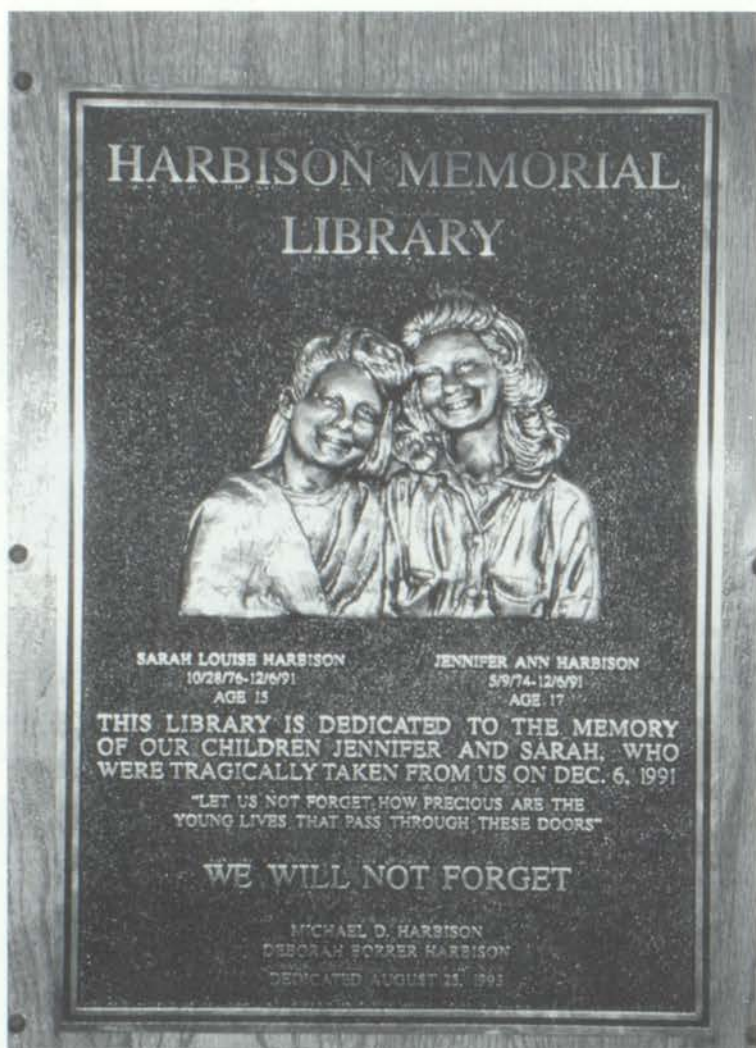

Hey, you guys!

Track and Field Day

Harbison Memorial Library

The Harbison Memorial Library was formally dedicated in August of this school year. The addition of the library to Crestview was made possible by a donation from Mr. and Mrs. Michael Harbison in memory of his two daughters, Sarah Louise Harbison and Jennifer Ann Harbison. This generous gift by Mr. and Mrs. Harbison will be shared by thousands of young people for years to come. Thank you.

WE WERE EXPECTING

It was a bright day in May,
Santa Ana winds warmed the air
We were full of anticipation
We were expecting a baby.

We were expecting to hold her little hand
Instead she held ours.

We were expecting to teach her
how to live in our world
Instead she taught us how to live in hers.

We were expecting to teach her
the importance of love,
Instead she taught us what love really is.

We were expecting to teach her
how to walk
Instead she taught us
just how fast she could run.

We were expecting to teach her
to reach for the stars
Instead she showed us
that stars could be reached.

We were expecting her to be with us forever
Instead she has grown — now college bound.

Time has passed quickly these eighteen years
We were just expecting a baby.
Instead we had something better.
We had Sarah.

Sarah, may your future be bright and blessed.
You are loved!

Mom, Dad, Daniel, Grandma, Grandpa, & Uncle Bill

TO: T. J.

Our first born son
Someone brand new
We had never been a parent
And weren't sure what to do.

We raised you in church
so your character would be sound
God's Word brought you up
God's Son made you His child.

So much time has passed
So many moments have gone
Some decisions were right
And others were wrong.

But through all that we've done
We have loved you so
And held you tightly in our arms
For the day we must let go.

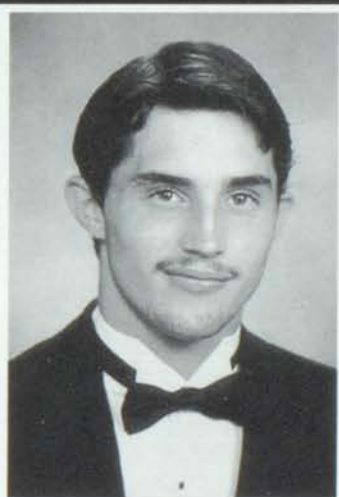

You have waited for this time
And we, but with grieving joy
You've grown into a man
Who stole our hearts as our boy.

Please remember who you are
And the good the Lord has done
Be a man, husband, and father
We'll always be honored that you are our son.

Congratulations T. J. Shafer — Sr. '96
We love you!

You have truly brought joy into our lives. We are so proud of you. Keep God in your heart, your Guardian Angel at your side, and you can accomplish anything you set your mind to.

We LOVE YOU and will always be there for you.

Adrian,

Congratulations on all of your achievements (personal, academic, and athletic). Whatever is worth doing at all in life is worth doing well. Always remember I Corinthians 10:31, "Whatever you do, do it all to the glory of God." You've made us very proud.

We love you always,

Neisha and Kwan

Jeremy,

Congratulations son on a job well done. We couldn't expect anymore than you have given us. Thirteen years of good grades and hard work, eleven of those with perfect attendance. You have reached that goal.

God has greatly blessed us with you, and we are very proud of you. Keep up your hard work and determination. May God bless you and keep you safe. We love you very much.

Do we really ride these stick horses?

Autumn,

Congratulations on your graduation! From a "little girl" to a "cowgirl" you are forever in our hearts. Thanks for all the wonderful memories. We Love You!

Mom, Sonny
& Amber

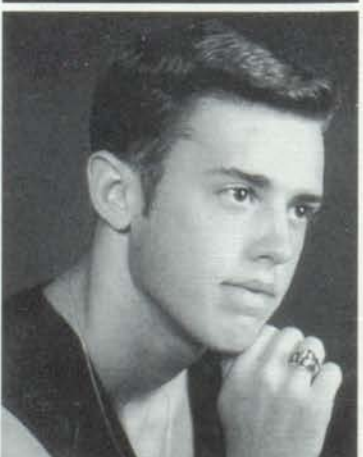

Leslie,

Congratulations regarding your graduation. You have always set high goals for yourself. These goals have been reflected not only by your grades, but also by the honors and awards that you have earned and received. We are very proud of you and each of your accomplishments.

Over the past 18 years we have watched you grow physically and mentally from an infant to a toddler, from a toddler to a young boy, and , finally, from a young boy to a young man. Now the time has come to cut that final "apron string" and let you spread your wings and fly solo. Although this has to be one of the most difficult challenges parents must face, we know that with God's guidance, there are no obstacles in life too great for you to overcome. Hold your head high and continue to strive for excellence in whatever you choose to do.

Please remember that no matter where you are and regardless of the choices you make in life (and you won't always make the best ones — no one ever does), we will always love you and will always be here for you.

Love,
Mama and Jon
Daddy and Connie

T. W.

You've come a long way, from PeeWee Herman to Prom King. We are proud of the responsible, fun-loving young man that you have become. You are a bright spot in our lives that will never dim. May the future be as bright for you.

Love Always,
Daddy, Mom & Courtney

P.S.
Thanks for always being there — you're not only my son, but a very loving friend.
Love, Mom
