

A large, detailed illustration of a lion lying on its side on a lawn. The lion's head is the central focus, with its eyes looking towards the viewer. Its mane is thick and golden-brown. The background shows a brick house with white window frames and a dark roof. The sky is a deep blue with stars, and there are some clouds or light streaks in the distance. The overall mood is serene yet majestic.

The graduating class of 1999 closes a chapter in the book of Old Main as this year's seniors take their last steps through the great stone building.

Built in 1941 during the second world war, Old Main saw its first class graduate with only 40 students. These first 40 began the tradition of excellence and pride that is carried on today.

The addition of Red River Army Depot to the area increased the size of the classes. With each new class came memories - memories of games won or lost, the tests not studied for, boyfriends and girlfriends, best friends and new friends.

Time has taken its toll on the structure. Years of exposure to the East Texas elements have weathered the building, leaving behind musty smells, drafty windows, and leaky ceilings.

Yet, Old Main still holds special charm for NBHS students. Imagine, over the past 58 years, the voices, goals and dreams that have filled those halls.

Now, as the century comes to a close so does a chapter in the life of our school. Old Main will no longer be filled with the laughter of students or the sounds of lockers opening and closing. Rather, a quietness will fill the halls.

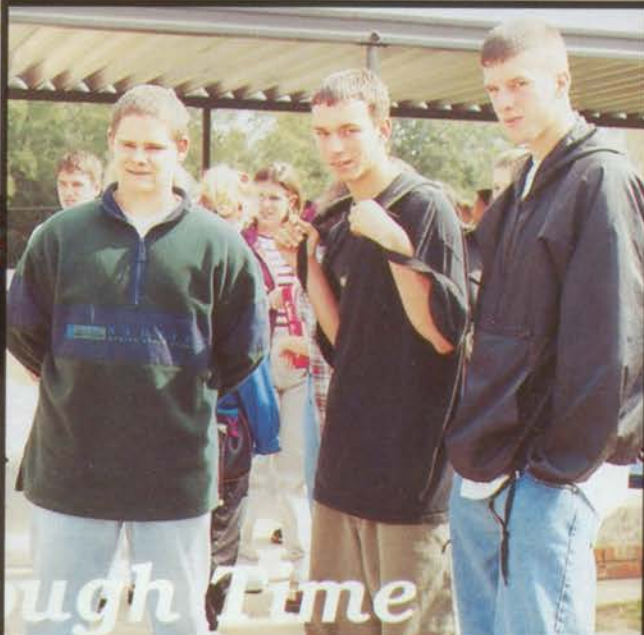

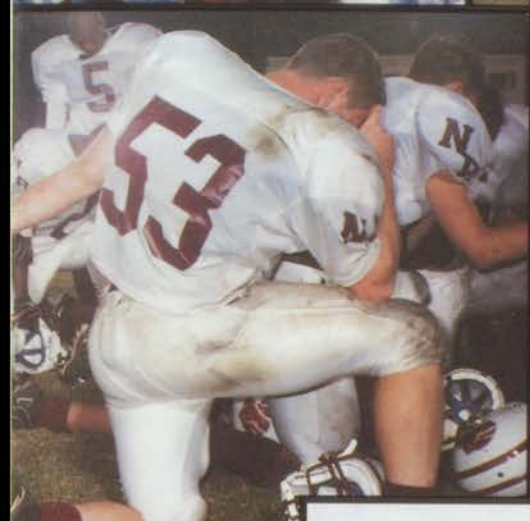

The new millennium starts a fresh page in the history of NBHS. It will not simply close the chapter on Old Main; it finishes the book.

Our goal is to once again put the spotlight on Old Main before it becomes only a part of the written history of New Boston High School.

A Step Into the Crowd

Different students, different personalities, different perspectives. Somehow, we all come together to form the voice and student population of New Boston High School.

Every student's high school experience is different. From participating on the field or court with the traditional Lion athletic programs, to marching to the beat of the Military Stride with Pride or capturing medals with UIL academic teams, student life revolves around hectic schedules year round. Clubs and organizations keep spirit alive with bonfires, pep rallies and parades.

However, keeping busy at school is not the center of life for NBHS students. Weekends bring hanging out with friends... parties... and eating at McDonald's after Friday's game. Weekends never seem to last long enough, and that reality sets in as the 8:25 bell rings Monday morning as we step back into the crowd at NBHS.

From hippie day to Homecoming night, the excitement and anticipation of Homecoming week flowed through the halls of NBHS. Students participated in the first annual Homecoming parade on Thursday night, which was followed by a blazing bonfire. Eight senior princesses were nominated to serve on the court, and on October 21, 1998, Leah Monkhouse was crowned queen in front of a roaring New Boston crowd.

Friends

Friendship is easy when you're young
 You play, you jump, you skip, you run
 But everything's complicated as the years go on
 A whole new age begins to dawn
 Your feelings go up, your feelings go down
 Your entire life is spinning around

People talk, rumors spread
 You need to grow close but drift apart instead
 You need to work if you want to hold on
 But it's hard not to give up and your friendship is pawned

All for a laugh that wouldn't last
 That turns into tears, dark shadows are cast

You're pulled from the left
 You're pulled from the right
 You really have to hang on tight
 So hold my heart and hold my arm
 Together we can resist all harm
 Stick together through thick and thin
 And through the fog, our friendship wins

"A Moment in Heaven"

Stepping into the night.... It was a night for everyone to glitter, to shine, and to sparkle like they never had before. Many couples chose to dine at restaurants in Texarkana. However, by 9:00 p.m., everyone had arrived at the Truman Arnold Center in anticipation of an eventful evening. We danced, took pictures, and even tested our luck at cards. Some had the pleasure of spending their money at the midnight auction. Go-carts, putt-putt golf, and the batting cages followed. Many realized they would never amount to Tiger Woods, others that Mark McGwire was out of their league. The long night continued with glow-in-the-dark bowling. By this time, it was obvious not everyone was going to survive until the 5:30 a.m. pancake breakfast at the fire department. However, the possibility of winning money, Ranger tickets, and Six Flags tickets, motivated a large number of students to show up for the last event of the 1999 Junior & Senior Prom.

A Step Above The Rest

New Boston High School has a long tradition of excellence when it comes to academics. Every year, they are a tough competitor in UIL meets and have numerous groups advance beyond the district and regional levels and go on to the state meet in Austin. However, this isn't the extent of their academic capabilities. New Boston High School earns state-wide recognition year after year on account of their TAAS scores. The standard New Boston sets for schools around the state is one that is A Step Above The Rest.

Mary Moore and Denisha Goldsmith make the perfect pair in Gammer Gurton's Needle

Steps of Competition

Throughout the years, New Boston High School students have been unified by an unflinching pride for their tradition-rich athletic programs and the maroon and gold that adorns their uniforms. Year after year, New Boston is a stout contender in not only district and regional play, but also in state competition. More often than not, the players overcome a good deal of adversity, succeeding in a way that New Boston is known. Odds are nothing but a number to these athletes, and win or lose, Lions always take . . . Steps of Competition.

Changing steps

Perhaps the most important time period in each of our lives is the time we spend learning to cope with change. Whether you're trying to get over the fact that nothing about your body is proportional or spending every waking hour trying to prevent your voice from cracking, middle school is a time of coping, a time of new experiences: lockers, athletics, band, pep rallies, first love, first dance, first kiss, zits, braces...middle school is a time of Changing Steps.

Step into the future

Many of us often fail to realize the enormous potential in each and every elementary student. In an age of fast food and microwaves, the important things in life still take time. The teachers at Crestview Elementary help their students develop guidelines that will last a lifetime and help them to achieve their fullest potential.

The staff recognizes that personal development means more than just academics. Crestview Elementary encourages the students to develop physically, spiritually, and intellectually. Whether it's mini-cheerleading camps, recess, or academics, the goal is to integrate all three areas of growth into general guidelines for living.

Who knows? One or more of these children could very well grow up to be a famous author, policeman, or maybe even a President?

Where has time gone? It seems like only yesterday we held your hand as you tried to walk. Now we're getting ready to watch you walk across the stage and begin a new chapter in your life.

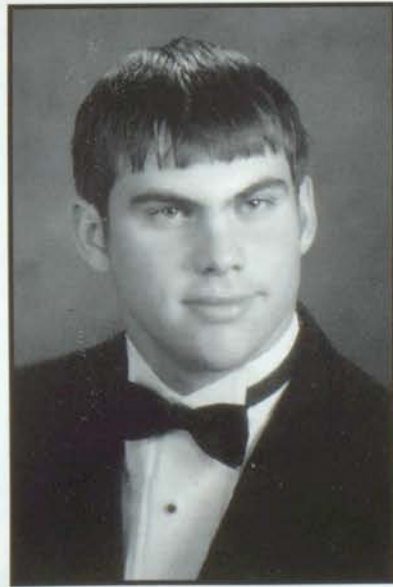

God has blessed you with a kind heart, a compassionate soul, and many talents. Remember to use these gifts as He wills as you travel life's path.

You have filled our lives with joy, pride and love. We are so proud of your accomplishments and of the young man you have become.

Remember what you have been taught, know we love you deeply, and go and make your dreams come true.

We love you,

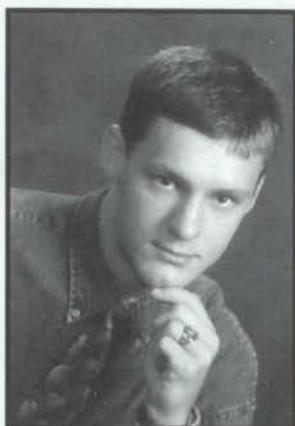

Mom, Dad, Kayla & Tyler

Aaron Johnston

God bestowed the greatest gift of love - you! Know that we are proud of you always. They say when a child is small - he steps on your toes and when he grows, he breaks your heart. Well, we still have our heart and toes, but we lost our wallets to Aggie Land.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Jennifer

Kimberly,

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU!

You have been a wonderful daughter and a caring sister. You are truly a blessing from God. Always remember, we are here for you, whatever happens in life. Your strong determination to get what you want, will no doubt follow you through life. With that determination and your trust in God, just about anything can happen. Remember God controls the future, so always follow him and you can never get lost.

Good luck on getting whatever you seek in life and never forget we will always love you.

Dusty Henslee

Dusty,
Well our baby is no longer a baby. Over the past 18 years you've grown from that sweet tiny baby into a "Fine" young man. Throughout the years we've watched you grow physically, mentally, and spiritually. Now it's time for you to set out in search of life's adventures. Remember that life is what you make it; and, always set your goals high and "reach for the stars". If you'll continue to work hard and keep Jesus in your heart, your lifetime accomplishments are limitless. Also, remember that we will always love you and will always be here for you. You have always made us proud to be your parents.

Love,

Chris (Bubba),

God blessed us the day
you were born...
A gift straight from Heaven
early one morn...
You have made our days
a little sunnier...
Our lives
a little funnier...
Our time together
a little dearer...
And the meaning of love
much, much clearer!

The years have flown by, man you have become. We know you'll succeed in whatever you put your mind to.

Remember to keep your faith in God — foremost and first.

Congratulations!

We all love you
very much,

Dusty Henslee

Dusty,

Only yesterday you were a child full of questions about life. Today you are beginning your journey from a young man to an adult. As you make the choices in your life, listen to your heart and know that we will always be there for you. We are proud of you.

Love,
Daddy and Connie

Glynn

Congratulations!

You are a wonderful son! You have always been and always will be a great source of pride and joy for us. We wish you all the love and happiness that life can bring, and we hope all your dreams come true. God bless you!

We love you,
Mom & Dad

Denise

You have always filled our lives with joy, love and pride. We are proud of all your accomplishments, but most of all, we are proud of the woman, mother and wife you have become.

We all love you!

What a blessing you are to our lives. We are so proud of your hard work and many accomplishments. More importantly, we are proud of the way you have lived your life and for the unique and beautiful person that you are. Our hope is that you find your truth for life in your dreams, your values, and your faith. Go from here remembering that we will always be here for you and letting God hold you in the palm of His Hand.

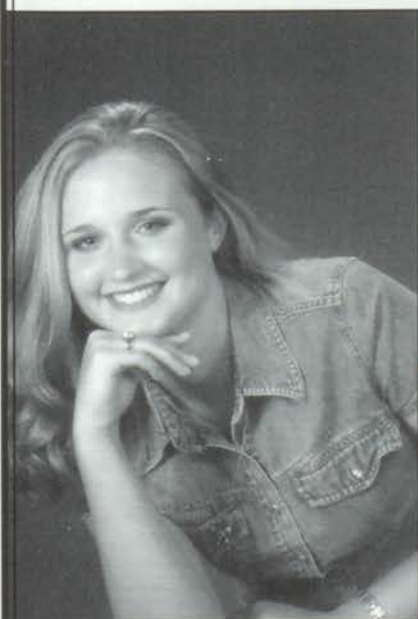

Love,
Mom, Dad and Lindsey

OUR SON

YOU WERE SUCH A JOY TO SEE,
IN THE YEAR OF 1980.
YOU WERE SUCH A HAPPY BABY,
SUCH, JOY YOU GAVE TO YOUR DADDY AND ME.

WHEN WE HEARD THEM SAY, "IT'S A BOY,"
FROM THE TIME WE BOUGHT YOU YOUR FIRST TOY.
YOU HAVE GIVEN OUR LIFE SUCH PLEASURE,
"JAMES" YOU HAVE BEEN OUR GREATEST TREASURE.

NOT EVER KNOWING WHAT YOUR FUTURE WOULD BE HOLDING,
WATCHING WITH PRIDE AS YOUR LIFE BEGAN UNFOLDING.
FROM THE TIME YOU WERE OUR BABY BOY,
UNTIL NOW, YOU HAVE BROUGHT US SO MUCH JOY.

WHILE REFLECTING ON DAYS GONE BY,
FROM KINDERGARTEN TO SENIOR HIGH.
JAMES SINCE YOU WERE FIVE YEARS OLD,
YOU WALKED THE HALLS OF MARDON AND GOLD.

WE WISH YOU THE BEST WHEREVER YOU ARE,
FOR IN OUR HEARTS YOU'LL NEVER BE FAR,
BUT, ALWAYS REMEMBER NO MATTER WHERE YOU ROAM,
THE DOOR IS ALWAYS OPEN TO YOU AT HOME.

WE LOVE YOU ALWAYS AND FOREVER

God had truly blessed me... You have grown into an extremely beautiful, considerate, intelligent young lady. You are so full of optimism, determination and dedication that you let nothing stand in your way. You are not only my daughter who I love with all my heart; you are my best friend, my advisor and my sunshine on cloudy days... Not many possess inner beauty as well as outer... It seems like yesterday when you were outside catching crawfish in "the creek." Now you are all grown up and old enough to realize that the place you spent most of your childhood is just a ditch on the side of the road. We are proud of you anyway. Words cannot express the joy you have given us. Remember to keep close to God. He has not led you astray so far, and He never will.

Colophon

The 1999 Lion's Den was designed and produced by the yearbook staff of New Boston High School, #1 Lion Drive, New Boston, Texas 75570. The book was printed by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas, with a pressrun of 500 copies. The publisher's representative was David Jones and in-plant consultant was Catherine Iden. Volume 46 of the book sold to students for $25 for one week, for $30 until April 15, and extra copies will sell for $40 on first come first serve basis.

All 296 pages of the Lion's Den were prepared on two IBM computers using Taylor Publishing Company's Ultra Vision software. Copy and captions were set in Opus, Memento, Malibu, Seville and Souvenir fonts. This year's theme, One Last Step, was chosen and developed by the Lion's Den staff.

The cover is lithocote and was designed by graphic designer Eddie Walker.

The front endsheets depict the "old school" in black and white and the back endsheets depict the "new school" in color.

The book was divided into eight sections, each having an individual theme spin-off. Student Life: A step into the crowd; Administration and Faculty: Steps to follow; Academics: A step above the rest; Athletics: Steps of competition; Organizations: A step in the right direction; Middle School: Changing steps; Crestview Elementary: Steps into the future; and Advertisements: Supportive steps.

Most photographs were taken by Lion's Den staff members with the exception of senior portraits, underclass, high school favorites and group athletic and band pictures, which were taken by New Boston Photography.

The 1999 Lion's Den was advised by Ms. Sharon Purtle and edited by Jamie Oliver. Staff members include Leah Monkhouse, Elizabeth Hollingsworth, Whitney Barrett, Christy Lynch, Leighton Wiggins, Clay Garrett, Courtney Howell, Amanda Cox and Melanie McCright.

One Last Step . . .

For juniors, sophomores and freshmen, the close of the year came the way it began: with bells ringing. For the Class of 1999, the finale came to the strains of the graduation recessional as they marched across the floor of the New Gym followed by hugs from fellow classmates. At that moment, it truly was their One Last Step as students of NBHS. As the final steps of the year were taken, memories were made and friendships were cemented. Students filled their last weeks with shared laughter at awards assemblies, school trips, with prom pictures and the occasional tears when good-byes were said. Finally, with the ringing of the bells on May 28, 1999, students took One Last Step: the step out of the 20th century and into the new millenium.
